

Hi, kids!

Happy Easter!

Enjoy these activity pages as you celebrate that I came back to life!

—Jesus

Jesus is alive!

He's alive! If you hear nothing else I have to say, hear that: He's alive!

My name is Mary Magdalene, and I followed Jesus for years, soaking up his teaching, witnessing the amazing things he did.

But when soldiers arrested and killed Jesus, I lost hope. Evil had won.

Several of us went to his tomb early Sunday morning. We weren't sure how we'd roll aside the stone sealing the tomb, but we were determined to anoint Jesus' body with spices.

Except the tomb stood open. Jesus' body...gone! Suddenly, two men in dazzling robes appeared. They asked why we were searching among the dead for someone who was alive. Jesus was alive?

But now I'm sure it's true. I've seen him with my own eyes, heard him with my own ears. Jesus is alive—and death has no hold on me now!

And here's good news: Because of Jesus, death has no hold on you, either!

He's a forever friend—one who helps you live your life now, and who will welcome you to heaven when the time comes for you to join him. He's alive! And because he's alive, we can be fully alive, too!

—Mary

On Easter, we celebrate that Jesus is alive!
Draw some things you love that are alive.

Jesus Is Crucified

Matthew 27:32-61; Mark 15:21-47; Luke 23:26-56; John 19:17-42:
Jesus knew that the only way to pay for the wrong things we do was by dying as our Savior. So Jesus let himself be hung on a cross, and he died.
Jesus loves us so much that he died for us.

When Jesus' friends went looking for him, they couldn't find him in his tomb!

Find these hidden items in the picture:

leaf • kite • seashell • jar • book • butterfly • cup • candle • sandal

“Anyone who belongs to Christ has become a new person. The old life is gone; a new life has begun!”

(2 Corinthians 5:17)

Jesus Rises From the Dead

Matthew 28:1-10; Mark 16:1-11; Luke 24:1-12; John 20:1-18: After Jesus died, his body was placed in a tomb. But when his friends went to put spices in his tomb, the tomb was empty! All Jesus' friends could see was some folded grave clothes. Later, they got to see Jesus because Jesus is alive now!

Jesus Comes Back to Life

Only the things that are not alive are hidden in the puzzle.
